PRE-ARRANGED ABSENCE REQUEST MIDDLE SCHOOL

A parent may excuse a student from school attendance by submitting a written excuse prior to the absence. A student may not be excused by a parent, under this provision, for more than ten (10) school days in a school year. Students so excused are required to make up all work missed during the absence. Absences falling into this category include discretionary absences known in advance (e.g., family vacations/travel, driver's license examinations). - Board Policy 431

The necessary permission/signature(s) are to be obtained and turned into the school office at least one (1) day prior to proposed absence.
