A Message From Our Principal: Mr. Weerts

Welcome Back!!

It is my sincere pleasure to welcome your child(ren) to our school! Whether your child is new to our school or returning we are excited to teach, support, and help them grow. We hope that your summer was an amazing time for fun and relaxation with families and friends.

Since we left in June, I am excited to share a few summer highlights:

1. We welcome new hires into our PV family. Emily Sams-Special Education; Jaimie Noble-Speech/Language therapist; Cassie Rice-Counselor; Brooke Desormeau-5th grade/reading intervention (maternity leave for Mrs. Padjen through October)
2. Official recognition from the State of Wisconsin for our positive behavioral approaches and outcomes.
3. Reading and writing training for all our literacy teachers.
4. Twenty thousand square feet of newly waxed and finished floors. Thank you summer cleaning crew!
5. Successful summer school experience for many students.

For all families, our monthly newsletter is a great forum to share upcoming events and features of our school. Please make sure you take a few moments to check it out. Typically, the newsletter arrives the first day of every month.

As your Principal, I am always open to feedback and suggestions. Please do not hesitate to email or call me with good ideas that could benefit your son or daughter. I am confident that our Prairie View staff and students will have a great experience in the 2023-24 school year!
