

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: October 17, 2014

East Troy Community School District and East Troy Village Police Issues Statement

EAST TROY, Wis. –Dr. Chris Hibner, superintendent of the East Troy Community School District and Alan Boyes, East Troy Police Chief have provided the following update:

The East Troy Community School District was contacted by the East Troy Police Chief stating that a subject is in custody regarding the post made on “Yik Yak” late last night. The subject is not an East Troy student. The school district appreciates the hard work of the East Troy, Delevan and Walworth County Police Departments.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation while we worked toward ensuring the safety of our students and staff.

#